Women's Relief Corps Formed By Mrs. Anita Kent

Mrs. Pauline Ortscheid is Now the President of Local Organization

BY MRS. ANITA KENT

The work of American women in the great war for the preservation of the Union was that of relief. Relief on the battlefield and in the hospitals for the wounded and the sick; relief, in homes provided for them, of the wives and children of the soldiers at the front, as well as for the widows and orphans of those who went forth never to return.

With the disbandment of our armies followed the dissolution of our Christian and sanitary commissions and the formal closing of the busy workrooms of our soldiers' aid societies.

A decade passed by; a financial crisis was on the country; sickness and old wounds and lack of work and bitter disappointments began to make cruel ravages in the veterans ranks. Hundreds of orphans cried for bread; hundreds of women in widows' weeds went about the streets seeking work in the name of soldier husbands, and there was none. Where, then, would the veterans turn for help but to the loyal women of America—the women who stood by them in a harder fight?

The Grand Army of the Republic, organized at the close of the war to promote the great principles of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty, had been doing its utmost to aid and comfort their unfortunate comrades; but the organization was small in numbers and had no sources of replenishment for the steady drains upon its treasury. Then it was that the loyal women answered again. "Here am I!" to the call of the men who saved the nation.

The name Relief Corps was first used by a society of Portland, Ore., organized by the post in 1869 under the name of Botsworth Relief Corps, No. 1, a society still in existence.

In 1883 the Woman's Relief Corps became a national organization to be known as the Woman's Relief Corps Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic.

As the years passed by and new wars swept the country the Woman's Relief Corps extended their help to all the needy veterans and the dependents of those who had lost their lives in service.

The Savanna Woman's Relief Corps, No. 344 was organized by Mrs. Anita Kent and instituted the 30th day of April, 1926. Mrs. Kent served the Corps as president from 1926 to 1932. During these years

In 1923 James R. Kelly was commander and Ray Westfall was adjutant. The G. A. R. post of Savanna, owing to deceased membership, caused by deaths and increasing infirmities of old age of its members, turned over to the American Legion Post their activities and presented the post with their flag. Henceforth, the observance of Memorial Day is to be handled for the G. A. R. by the American Legion. This year the post procured the rifles of the government to be used in parades and by firing squads at funerals.

Plattenberger Visits Savanna After 34 Years

Savanna, Ill. — Frank J. Plattenberger, 84, of Puyallup, Wash., returned Monday after visiting his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Plattenberger. This was his first visit here since 1924 and he said the town had certainly changed. Sheriff Henry W. Truninger was the only one of his old friends left here.

He remarked about the spreading shade trees as in Washington he said the trees all grow up straight and tall. He also said he never saw such large cantaloupes and took one home with him.

He was entertained at dinner Sunday in Ray Westfall home, where his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plattenberger of Aberdeen, S. D. were weekend guests. He was guest of honor at a dinner Friday night in the Plattenberger home for 28 relatives from Savanna and Thomson. He visited his brother, Grant, Friday in the Galena nursing home.

He also visited in Sabula, as he expressed a desire to see the place where his parents lived seventy years ago. He was interested in the river and said it was changed since the government put the dams in.

My letter to BILL & ~~SHIRLEY~~ Shirley

This is a RIDDLE so read these lines with care,

There is three names to be hidden there.

A comma should follow the sixth letter.

Formed in this way it will be better.

Then add the letters that you mention.

(SO this name attracts your attention)

Well to begin the name of number two

Just carry on as before, and go on through.

Have you guessed what will be the rest?

You announce that it is plain, my efforts are in vain.

To hide a name in this jumble, I feel humble.

If you have that part completely solved,

You then will know what is involved.

Now you will find name number three;

With a hop, skip or jump we will proceed

To find an answer, for that is what we need.

And notice that without a doubt, or any tears.

All this nonsense sent, WITH THREE BIG CHEERS.

(KEY)

Start with the first letter of the first line,

Second letter of second line, third letter of the third line and in this way go on through to the end.

THE DAY WE MET GRAND DAD:

So you would like for me to show
The way I make these riddles grow.
This is the way; just a name for the begining,
There you have it; ( I see you are grinning )
Still it is the easy thing to do
For the letters will now appear to you,
And they come when they are due.
Now we leave that word in peace to rest;
In this contest we strive to do our best.
And a record has been made this day;
" Just a Hello, Bye-Bye, we can not stay."
Time is fleeting and will never wait;
With this knowlege I am glad to state,
September still is a time I like to remember.

ANOTHER PILGRIM CALLED TO REST: On Wednesday morning Charles H. Plattenberger was called unexpectedly to his eternal rest having almost reached the age of 72 years. He was born on September 19, 1896 in Savanna and was received into membership at St. Peter Church on February 23, 1931 as an adult confirmand. The last 37 years he has been an active member in the Lutheran church and returning to Savanna, once again attended St. Peter, serving faithfully as custodian from 1965 until his death. Mr. Plattenberger had retired from his employment as Chief Clerk for the Milwaukee Road in 1963 after 51 years and was visiting with his son in Deer Lodge, Montana, when stricken with his fatal illness. He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Esther L. (nee: Haas), a daughter Wilma, (Mrs. LaVerne Mischnik) of Hopkins, Minn., a son William, and a great multitude of friends and other relatives who cherish his memory and mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted by Pastor Mahnke in St. Peter Church on Saturday, Sept. 14, Internment followed at the Savanna Township Cemetery. Words of comfort were addressed to the mourners from Matt. 10:29.
"Whosoever shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven."

MEMORIAL: We gratefully acknowledge a memorial of $85.00 from relatives and friends to the glory of God and in loving memory of Mrs. Agnes Amling fro the Parish Scholarship Fund.

HELP is sought from among the male members of St.
Peter to clean the rafters and beams of St. Peter as a prelude to a general church cleaning. The work will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 16. A good turnout will lighten the load and shorten the working time.

NEGLECT OF THE WORD: "Behold, the days come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a famine of water, but of hearing the words of the Lord: And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the Lord, and shall not find it." Amos 8:11,12.
