Dearest Beccy, thou hast left us,

We thy loss most deeply feel;

But 'tis God that hath bereft us,

He can all our sorrows heal.

None knew her but to love her.

On the 29th ultimo, after a long and painful suffering, which she bore with Christian fortitude, ELIZABETH BLOTTENBERGER, of Baltimore county, in the 66th year of her age.

At Ellicott's Mills, Howard county, Md., on the 9th of her age.

At Cortland, Alabama, on the 22d ultimo, of morbid consumption, Miss ELIZABETH LEKY, in the 23d year of her age, formerly of Baltimore.

A holy calm was on her brow,

And peaceful was her breast,

While o'er her pallid features stole

The signs of coming death.

How bless'd the good are when they die—

Bright angels beckon them to come;

On wings of faith and love they fly,

Up to the Christian's happy home.

At Callao, on board ship James Corner, on the 11th of April, DANIEL LESLIE RILEY, of this city, in the 29th year of his age, leaving a wife and one child to mourn their irreparable loss. The deceased was a member of the I. O. of Rechabites. Whilst his family and friends were anxiously anticipating the time of his return to his native land, the gale was laden with death; joy is transformed into tears, and the cheerful, irradiating smile into that of anguish and disappointment.

By friends thy dying eyes were closed,

By friends thy limbs composed,

By friends thy grave adorned,

By friends honored and by friends mourned.
