Extract from Regulations of the Board of Health to secure a full and correct record of Vital Statistics in the City of Baltimore.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted and ordained, That whenever any person shall die in the said city, it shall be the duty of the Physician who attended during his or her last sickness, or the Coroner, when the case comes under his jurisdiction, to furnish within twenty-four hours after the death, to the Undertaker, or other persons superintending the burial, as far as the same can be ascertained, the full name, sex, age, condition (whether married or single), and the place of birth of the deceased.

schools. She was a beautician at the old Harrison salon in the 300 block of N. Charles St. for many years. After working at other shops, she retired in 1981.

"She was known for her gregarious personality, beautiful clothes and very high heels," said her daughter-in-law, Carol McGowan. "She refused until her death to wear any other shoes."

Her first marriage to Joseph J. McGowan, longtime editor of the Daily Record newspaper, ended in divorce in 1934. She married Jack Prah in 1950. He died in 1956.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. Feb. 28 at Our Lady of the Angels Chapel at Charlestown, 711 Malden Choice Lane, Catonsville.

Survivors include a son, George V. McGowan of Queensdown, retired chairman and chief executive officer of Baltimore Gas and Electric Co.; four grandsons; and a great-granddaughter.

David S. Grobosky, 49, salesman for manufacturer

David S. Grobosky, a salesman with Smurfit-Stone Container Corp. and a former Abingdon resident, died of cancer Friday at his home in York, Pa. He was 49.

Mr. Grobosky was born in Louisville, Ky., and raised in Williamsville, N.Y. He earned a bachelor's degree in liberal arts from the University of Connecticut at Storrs in 1976.

He began his sales career as an agent for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. In 1985, he moved to Baltimore, where he held sales positions with Westvaco and Weyerhaeuser corporations. Since 1998, he had worked for Smurfit-Stone, a manufacturer of corrugated packaging.

A resident of York since 1999, Mr. Grobosky enjoyed golf and coaching youth soccer.

He was a former member of Bel Air United Methodist Church.

Services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at Eastminster Presbyterian Church in York.

Mr. Grobosky is survived by his wife of 21 years, the former Deborah Lohss; a son, Ryan L. Grobosky of York; his parents, Robert E. and Elizabeth Grobosky of Magnolia, Del.; a brother, Paul Grobosky of Denver; and two sisters, Kay Hanna of Massillon, Ohio, and Jill Dehulio of Kennett Square, Pa.

"I have no bitterness for what I went through," Mr. Burke told The Sun three years ago, recalling the prejudice of his baseball days. "I chalked it up to experience."

A funeral Mass will be offered at 10 a.m. today at the Episcopal Church of St. Mark's on the Hill, 1620 Reisterstown Road, Pikesville, where he was a communicant.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, include three daughters, Valerie Hester of Stafford, Va., Janice Covington of Chicago and Rosalyn Burke of Washington; and five grandchildren. A previous marriage ended in divorce.

Obituary in memory.

After the 1936 games, she starred in Billy Rose's "Aquacades," a traveling show. In 1938, she played Jane in Tarzan's Revenge, with Glenn Morris, the 1936 Olympic decathlon champion, in the starring role.

In 1940, she married Mr. Rose, who later was a Broadway producer. After divorcing him in 1954, she married oil executive Tom Whalen, who died in 1984.

Cornelius Bumpus, 58, a saxophonist and former member of the Doobie Brothers who had performed with Steely Dan since 1993, died of a heart attack

Obituaries

Because of limited space and the large number of requests for obituaries, The Sun regrets that it cannot publish all the obituaries it receives. Because The Sun regards obituaries as news, we give a preference to those submitted within 48 hours of a person's death. It is also our intention to run obituaries no later than seven days after death.

DAISY MAE NICHOLS

In loving memory DAISY MAY NICHOLS. November 17, 1923 to February 5, 1997

ABOU BEN ADHEM

Abou Ben Adhem (May his tribe increase) awoke one night from a deep dream of peace, and saw, within the moonlight in his room, making it rich like a lily in bloom, an angel writing in a book of gold: exceeding peace had made Ben Adhem bold, and to the presence in the room he said, "What writest thou?" The vision raised its head, and with a look made of all sweet accord answered, "The names of those who love the Lord." "And is mine one?" said Abou. "Nay, not so," replied the angel. Abou spoke more low, but cheerily still; and said "I pray thee, then, write me as one that loves his fellow men." The angel wrote, and vanished. The next night it came again with a great wakening light, and showed the names whom love of God had blessed, and, Lo! Ben Adhem's name led all the rest!

SCHATZ 28
In loving memory of STELLA on her birthday, April 28, 1974.

We left some flowers where you lay. Who went to sleep but yesterday: You could not see them, catch their scent

Or know just what the flowers meant.

The flowers have faded yes, but we Keep them all fresh in memory.

CHARLES.

VARVARO 29e
In memory of our dear daughter & sister LUCILLE A. VARVARO who passed away April 29th, 1970.

Do not ask us if we miss her There's such a vacant place Oft we think we hear her footsteps And see her smiling face.

Days of sadness still come o'er us Tears in silence often flow

Memory keeps her ever near us Tho she left us four years ago.

Loving mother & brother & sister-in-law P.

Dearest Beccy, thou hast left us,

We thy loss most deeply feel;

But 'tis God that hath bereft us,

He can all our sorrows heal.

None knew her but to love her.

On the 29th ultimo, after a long and painful suffering, which she bore with Christian fortitude, ELIZABETH BLOTTENBERGER, of Baltimore county, in the 65th year of her age.

At Ellicott's Mills, Howard county, Md., on the 9th instant, Mrs. REBECCA WATERS, in the 65th year of her age.

At Cortland, Alabama, on the 22d ultimo, of morbid consumption, Miss ELIZABETH LEKY, in the 23d year of her age, formerly of Baltimore.

A holy calm was on her brow,

And peaceful was her breast,

While o'er her pallid features stole

The signs of coming death.

How bless'd the good are when they die—

Bright angels beckon them to come;

On wings of faith and love they fly,

Up to the Christian's happy home.

At Callao, on board ship James Corner, on the 11th of April, DANIEL LESLIE RILEY, of this city, in the 29th year of his age, leaving a wife and one child to mourn their irreparable loss. The deceased was a member of the I. O. of Rechabites. Whilst his family and friends were anxiously anticipating the time of his return to his native land, the gale was laden with death; joy is transformed into tears, and the cheerful, irradiating smile into that of anguish and disappointment.

By friends thy dying eyes were closed,

By friends thy limbs composed,

By friends thy grave adorned,

By friends honored and by friends mourned.

pokesman for the authority yesterday that, if this September anything like August, general cargo movements at Dundalk surpass all previous records. The huge, 365-acre installation, owned by the port authority, has become increasingly busy since it was acquired and developed by the State agency. Much of the current general cargo increase can be attributed to the tremendous volume of military cargo now being handled; a large part of the increase is, of course, due to the Vietnam crisis.

All 8 Berths Occupied

The increased activity at Dundalk was highlighted Tuesday, when eight ships were simultaneously engaged in discharging and loading cargo.

It marked the first time that all eight berths were occupied at the same time. A ninth berth is currently being constructed at the station.

Although the military cargo is responsible for a portion of the activity, miscellaneous general cargo was also reported to be on the upward move.

The trend did not persist, however, with all products. Scrap metal shipments for the year to date decreased by 38.57 per cent over last year, and molasses was down 6.35 per cent for the same period.

Containerized cargoes, which have been a steady and reliable source of business at Dundalk, helped to offset general cargo figures. Foreign imports had increased 13 per cent for the year so far, a comparison with last year's figures.

The number of ships calling at Dundalk last month totaled 71, and the total tonnage of all cargo handled at the facility was 78,421 tons in August.

The Coast Point Marine Terminal is operated by the authority. Although cargo movements had increased, but only by 26.68 per cent, over last year's figures. The loved husband of Mildred Bingel (nee Steinert), and father of Mrs. Alice Peroutka and Mr. H. Norman Bingel, step father of Mrs. Virginia Boegner, also survived by five grandchildren. 17c

CH.—In loving memory of my son, GEORGE, who passed away years ago, March 23, 1923.
Life I loved you dearly,
Death I do the same.

BY HIS WIFE

—In sad but loving rememberance of our mother, CHRISTINA departed two years ago, March she go, when life seemed fair, dark clouds were near,

the brightness of our lives,
the bitter tear?

Not at the close of day, light veiled earth and sky,
so full of life and hope, breathe the last good-by.

HER DAUGHTER AND SONS.

—In loving remembrance of dear wife, MARY L., who passed away March 23, 1926.

As we placed upon your grave
her and decay;

For you who sleeps beneath er fade away.

A DEVOTED HUSBAND,
24

In loving remembrance of my husband and father, JOHN E., passed this life one year ago,
March 23, 1934.

When was the call
dear and loved by all.

Heart ceased to beat knew he was gone.

Def, a shock severe,

With one we loved so dear.

And kind in all his ways.

And just to the end of his days.

And true in his heart and mind.

Memories he left behind. 24

Remember when others forget.

ROSIE, AND SON, JOHN.

—In loving memory of our mother, GEORGIA PHILLINGER,
March 26, 1934.

Our mother, woman and aid,

Was better God never made;

Our worker, so loyal and true,

Million—that, mother, was you.

Our judgment, always right;

Our liberal, ever upright;

Our friends and all whom knew.

Our mother—that mother was

BY HER CHILDREN.

—In sad but loving rememberance of our little darling, LILLIAN who departed this life six years ago, March 25.

Best lillies are the first to fall,

Best first to fade;

Best, dearest, best of all.

Best rest is laid. 24

MOTHER AND FATHER.

—In loving remembrance of our father, ES L., who died March 24, 1934.
He but not forgotten.

BY HIS WIFE AND SONS.

—In loving remembrance
of our husband, LUDWIG SELIG, who died ten years ago,
March 25, 1925.

When was the call

dear and loved by all.

Heart had ceased to beat.

Mathilde Storck, 57, travel group volunteer

Mathilde Storck, who volunteered for an organization that assisted airport travelers for a decade, died Friday of lung cancer at her Baltimore home. She was 57.

Born and raised in Munich, Germany, the former Mathilde Steigenberger moved to Baltimore in 1965, a year after marrying her husband, Denis, who was stationed in Germany with the U.S. Army.

Once their three children were grown, Mrs. Storck began volunteering in 1988 for Travelers Aid at Baltimore-Washington International Airport, where she assisted German-speaking travelers and others.

She spent a brief period as volunteer coordinator for the organization, leaving that post in late 1999 when Travelers Aid was no longer associated with the airport information booths.

Mrs. Storck also enjoyed gardening, sewing, knitting and traveling throughout Germany and to other European countries.

She was also an animal lover and had two cats and a dog.

"She was a very strong person, no doubt about that," said her daughter, Monica Storck of Lutherville. "She took great pride in being German."

Funeral services will be held in Munich, but friends may call at the Mitchell-Wiedefeld Funeral Home, 6500 York Road, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Sept. 28.

In addition to her husband and daughter, Mrs. Storck is survived by her parents, Josef and Eleanore Steigenberger of Munich; two sons, Tony Storck of Baltimore and Chris Storck of Highland, Ohio; and one grandson.

Elsewhere

Gene Shacove, 72, a hairstylist to the stars who inspired the movie Shampoo, died Wednesday in Los Angeles of a thoracic aneurysm followed by kidney failure. His clients included George Hamilton, Lucille Ball and Marlene Dietrich. He set a trend with his loose, tousled haircuts for Jill St. John and Joey Heatherton, fellow salon owner Allen Edwards said.

But it was his eventful love life that inspired the 1975 comedy Shampoo, starring friend Warren Beatty and written by another friend, Robert Towne.

Julie Bishop, who appeared in 84 movies from 1923 to 1957 opposite stars including Humphrey Bogart and John Wayne and in the television series My Hero with Bob Cummings in the early 1950s, died of pneumonia Aug. 30, her 87th birthday, in Mendocino, Calif., said her daughter, actress Pamela Shoop Sweeney.

Obituaries

Because of limited space and the large number of requests for obituaries, The Sun regrets that it cannot publish all the obituaries it receives. Because The Sun regards obituaries as news, we give a preference to those submitted within 48 hours of a person's death. It is also our intention to run obituaries no later than seven days after death.
